Rep. Tim Sneller, from the 50th District, offered the following invocation:

“Lord, the people of Michigan have put their trust in us, to do what is best for Michigan. Please grant us wisdom and guide our actions so we may humbly serve those we represent. As Abraham Lincoln said - ‘With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation’s wounds... to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations.’

Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Tedder to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 425.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Stephanie Chang.

Whereas, It is with great appreciation for her hard work and dedication to the people of this state and the Sixth District, which includes the cities of Ecorse, River Rouge, and part of Detroit, that we recognize Representative Stephanie Chang upon completion of two terms of service as a member of this chamber; and

Whereas, Stephanie Chang holds a bachelor’s and two master’s degrees from the University of Michigan. She worked tirelessly as a community organizer in Detroit for almost ten years in leadership positions with many organizations, including the James and Grace Lee Boggs School, the Center for Progressive Leadership in Michigan, the Campaign for Justice, the New American Leaders Project, the Detroit Asian Youth Project, NextGen Climate Michigan, and Michigan United/One United Michigan. She is a co-founder and past president of Asian and Pacific Islander American Vote-Michigan; and

Whereas, After her election in 2014 as the first Asian American woman in the Michigan Legislature, Representative Chang continued to champion Detroit and Downriver in her work on air quality, affordable and safe drinking water, education, criminal justice reforms, and improving economic opportunities. She served on the Judiciary, Natural Resources, Education Reform, Criminal Justice, and Law and Justice committees, the last as minority vice chair. Throughout her career and political tenure, she has demonstrated an admirable passion for and commitment to the ideals of opportunity, fairness, justice, and equity for all. She established the District 6 Neighborhood Services Center to serve the needs of her constituents, including saving homes from foreclosure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Stephanie Chang for her notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Chang as evidence of our esteem and best wishes as she moves onto the Senate.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 426.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Tom Cochran.

Whereas, It is a pleasure to extend the congratulations of this legislative body to Representative Tom Cochran as he completes his service in the House of Representatives. Since his election in 2012, Representative Cochran has been a leader on issues that impact the lives of citizens in the Sixty-seventh District and Michiganders as a whole, particularly in areas of education and public safety; and

Whereas, A graduate of Lansing Community College and Siena Heights University, Representative Cochran brought to the Legislature a wealth of public service experience that includes almost 30 years as a Lansing City Fire Department firefighter, paramedic, and eventually, fire chief. For 10 years he served as union representative and president of the International Association of Fire Fighters Lansing Local 421. He was also a member of many community boards including the Greater Lansing Labor Council and the City of Lansing Police and Fire Pension Board; and

Whereas, In his three terms as a state representative, Representative Cochran has been an advocate for Michigan public safety officers, educators, and middle-class families. This dedication is evident in his support for legislation that protects healthcare benefits for retired police officers and firefighters. He served as minority vice chair of the Appropriations Transportation and Joint Capital Outlay subcommittees and the Insurance Committee. He also served on the Health Policy and Transportation and Infrastructure committees. His work in the House has been appreciated by his colleagues and staff members; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Tom Cochran for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Cochran as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 427.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Scott Dianda.

Whereas, It is with honor that we recognize the service of Representative Scott Dianda to our state and the residents of the One Hundred-tenth District as he completes his tenure with the Michigan House of Representatives. Over the last six years, Representative Dianda has determinedly advocated for the people and businesses of Michigan's Upper Peninsula and the entire state; and

Whereas, A lifelong resident of the Upper Peninsula, Scott Dianda brought both government and business experience to the legislative process. He is a small business owner and a former trustee and president of the Village of Calumet. Representative Dianda attended Lake Superior State University, worked in transportation maintenance for the Department of Transportation, and served as the president of the Michigan State Employees Association, AFSCME, Local 5; and

Whereas, Representative Dianda's experience and knowledge of business, natural resources, and recreational issues have been invaluable tools for the Michigan Legislature. He served as minority vice chair on the Tourism and Outdoor Recreation and the Regulatory Reform committees, and was a member on the Energy Policy, Natural Resources, and Transportation and Infrastructure committees where he helped pass legislation for small businesses and disabled veterans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Scott Dianda for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Dianda as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 428.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Fred Durhal III.

Whereas, It is with great appreciation for his hard work and dedication to the Michigan House of Representatives that we commend Representative Fred Durhal III upon the completion of his service as a member of this chamber. In these four years, his passion and commitment to improving the lives of Michiganders have benefited not only his constituents in the Fifth District but the whole of our state's citizenry; and

Whereas, After attending Eastern Michigan University, Representative Durhal brought to the Legislature a wealth of public service experience. He was a member of the Dexter Elmhurst Community Center board, served with AmeriCorps in northwest Detroit as the director of a literacy program for children, and collaborated with Village Builders of Northwest Detroit and Motor City Blight Busters to help stabilize neighborhoods in Detroit; and

Whereas, Representative Durhal joined the Legislature in 2015. In his two terms as a state representative, Durhal served with dedication and distinction as minority vice chair of the Appropriations Committee and as the minority vice chair of the House Fiscal Agency Governing Board. He was also the Assistant Democratic Leader during the 2015-2016 legislative session. Representative Durhal has faithfully championed a range of issues including road funding and public education; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Fred Durhal III for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Durhal as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Love, Hoadley, Faris, Sowerby, Clemente, Sneller, Cochran, Pagan, Crawford, Chang, Geiss, Zemke, Ellison, Moss and Peterson offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 429.

A resolution to urge food establishments and franchisees to stop gender classification of kid's meal toys.

Whereas, Food establishments often offer a toy with their meals marketed to young children, and in some cases the customer is asked if they prefer a "girl toy" or a "boy toy." Often, the designated "boy toys" are action figures or building toys; typically, in primary colors, whereas "girl toys" are often stuffed animals and are usually in a pastel color scheme. This is a significant issue as billions of these meals are sold every year and this practice can influence and limit children's imaginations and interests by promoting some toys as only suitable for girls and others only for boys. While some food establishments claim to have abandoned this practice, many stores in Michigan continue to offer gender-classified options to customers; and

Whereas, Numerous studies have highlighted the harmful effects of gender-classified toys. Toys and play are the earliest form of learning, especially in the beginning stages of childhood development, and children begin learning about gender roles as early as age two. According to the Gender Development Laboratory at Monmouth University, as the child grows older and develops, his or her play activities change based on societal connection to their gender grouping; and

Whereas, Targeting the offering of toys by gender has consequences beyond socialization. A 2015 study published by the Association for Psychological Science concluded that boys are more likely to play with toys that develop spatial intelligence and reasoning than girls. These skills are especially important for success in academic and professional domains, including science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM). If a customer desires a toy, it should be one of his or her choice without classification by gender. Customers should simply be offered the choice of toy. (Example: Would you like a Transformer or a My Little Pony?); now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge food establishments and franchisees in Michigan to stop gender classification of toys offered in its kid's meals; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the CEO of the boards of directors of the major fast food chains in Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Commerce and Trade.

Reps. Reilly, Lucido, Vaupel, Noble, Hornberger and Frederick offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 430.

A resolution to urge the United States Secretary of Education and the Congress of the United States to amend the Every Student Succeeds Act to remove the assessment participation requirement in the upcoming reauthorization.

Whereas, The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) requires schools to have at least 95 percent participation in standardized statewide assessments and penalizes schools if fewer students participate; and

Whereas, Michigan public schools and public school academies may find their funding revoked, their reputation damaged, their students and teachers demoralized, and their administrators faced with new challenges if they are penalized under this requirement; and

Whereas, Michigan parents have the right to opt out of statewide assessments and this right should be honored and protected; and

Whereas, Students are unduly pressured by schools to take the state assessments to avoid penalties; and

Whereas, It is plainly unreasonable to punish students, parents, teachers, and schools for the decision of 5 percent of the parents over which the school has no control; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we hereby urge Congress to remove the statewide assessment participation requirement in subsection (c) paragraph (4)(E) of the ESSA (20 USC 6311), which can have negative consequences on federal funding of our schools; and be it further

Resolved, That we hereby urge the Secretary of Education to passionately advocate in support of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Secretary of Education, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education Reform.

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Lauwers moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Chang:

“Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is not really a farewell – I will be just across the Capitol next year and I know the end of this term won’t be the end of the work and friendships with many of you.

It has been a tremendous honor to serve in the Michigan House of Representatives and I will always be grateful to the residents of District 6 for allowing me to be their public servant for the past four years.

When I first started this job in January 2015, I was an eternal optimist, someone who believed I could get things done, I was ready to hit the ground running, and I was pregnant!

Now as I wind down my time in the House, I’m still an eternal optimist despite some legislative battle scars, I’ve been able to get some good things done for the people of Michigan, I’m still working hard, and I am ending my time in the House the same way I started – pregnant!

It’s been a simultaneous journey of learning how to be a mommy and learning how to be a good legislator. And it’s been an interesting parallel in life lessons. In the past few years, I’ve learned a lot about having patience with a toddler and patience with the legislative process, having humility knowing some things are just not under my control as a mom and as a legislator, and doing a whole lot of juggling and multitasking.

There actually is a lot around the Capitol that is maybe a little bit too similar to raising a toddler – for example, the patience and persistence required, the cleaning up of messes, and listening to and responding to a lot of strong feelings – I could maybe be talking about potty-training or maybe I could be talking about getting a complicated bipartisan bill package passed!

I have a lot of people to thank and a few reflections to share.

First, I am eternally grateful to my husband Sean, my parents, my in-laws, and my daughter Sonya for their love and support. I literally could not do this job without them.

Second, I have been lucky to have an incredible staff team. Ellen Heinitz, Alex Garza, Mary Turner, Janlynn Miller, and dozens of interns over the past few years have poured an enormous amount of time, heart, dedication and brilliant work into making Team Chang’s slogan – Getting Things Done — a reality. None of the legislative successes, programs in our district, or services at our neighborhood service center would be possible without the hard work of my staff.

There are so many colleagues I am grateful for. LaTanya Garrett for being the best seatmate - we’ve shared food, ideas, stories and tears. Kristy Pagan for your friendship and tireless work to advance women’s issues. Jon Hoadley for your friendship, genius ideas, and cookies. Erika Geiss, Leslie Love, Donna Lasinski and Winnie Brinks for being a fierce executive committee with me for the Progressive Women’s Caucus. Sam Singh for your support and allowing me opportunities to lead. Klint Kesto for being a great committee chair and friend and for our work together in law & justice on many many many bills. Peter Lucido for our interesting conversations and for working together to change some of your bills! Thank you to the Detroit Caucus for the unique bond we have that is our love for our city. Robert Wittenberg for being Mr. Congeniality, the kindest person here, and my biggest fan. Jeremy Moss, Darrin Camilleri, Abdullah Hammoud and others for trying to convince me to run for the Senate and not giving up on me despite my stubborn resistance. Kurt Heise and Gary Howell for being such fair and open-minded committee chairs. Dave Pagel for your political courage - I won’t ever forget it. Martin Howrylak for being so passionate about changing our criminal justice system and for being an ally on environmental accountability. Sheldon Neeley, our late friend Julie Plawecki, Ned Canfield, Phil Phelps, and more for our work together on water quality, affordability and access. Cara Clemente for working together on the Julie Plawecki Day of Service. Vanessa Guerra for your smart questions and energy - I’m going to miss serving on committees with you. And Chris Greig, I can’t wait to see you lead this side of the aisle next term.

Thank you to Democratic & Republican policy staff for the long hours you put in – especially Eli and Dan and huge thanks go to Coffiann Hawthorne who I’m pretty sure does the work of three people.

Thanks to Suzanne Caterino and Courtney Overbey who drafted a gazillion things for me. And the entire team of women staff who made the work of the Progressive Women’s Caucus possible.

Thank you to all the sergeants who keep us safe and in line and also to Alice who seems to have everything for us in the back.

Thank you to everyone at LSB for their amazing work behind the scenes drafting bills, amendments and substitutes on tight timelines and for never tiring of our many research requests.

Thank you to Rashida Tlaib, my friend and predecessor, for being the first to encourage me to run for state representative, and for being a mentor and inspiration to so many. Thank you to everyone who volunteered for or worked on my campaigns, especially Denzel McCampbell and Mallika Roy who ran my first race. I am only here because of the hard work and support from many people.

From convening a taskforce to successfully advocate for changes to the House harassment policy & presentation (thank you Doug Simon!) to getting the styrofoam cups in the back replaced, I hope I’ve made an impact on this institution.

I’m thankful for the opportunity that this position has given me to work on bipartisan solutions, like the female genital mutilation legislation that make our state’s laws the strongest in the nation, laws to address nitrous oxide whip-it abuse by minors, our comprehensive package to protect sexual assault survivors, prevent future sexual assault, and improve accountability and more. I’m also thankful that this position has allowed me and my team to help hundreds of families at our neighborhood service center and through programs like our community baby shower for low-income women, Girls Making Change fellowship, and door to door tax foreclosure prevention efforts.

I am a proud daughter of immigrants who came to this country believing in core American values of fairness, access, equity and opportunity. These are the values that I do my best to fight for. Let's keep working together to make sure we are crafting sound solutions that uphold these values.

As some of you know, before I ran for office, I worked as a community organizer and being a social worker at heart informs the way I work. I believe it is our responsibility as lawmakers to always think about the most vulnerable in our communities not as an afterthought but instead at the forefront of our minds when we make policies that will affect our future generations. Whether it's making sure every child gets a quality education no matter who they are, clean air to breathe no matter the zip code, clean water to drink, an economy that works for everyone, a justice system that's both smart and fair – we have a lot of work to do to make sure the inequities and divides that exist in our state are repaired, not deepened. It is important that we constantly ask ourselves how are not just improving the lives of just some Michiganders but truly creating opportunity for all of my daughter's generation and the next generation.

We represent districts that are very distinct and this means we can learn a lot from each other. I've learned things from colleagues on both sides of the aisle, like the water access issues in some rural areas, what "treeing a bear" means, the similarity in growing housing affordability issues in Detroit and Grand Rapids, and how the ore dock in Marquette worked. It's important that we have learned from each other and that we continue to build bridges — and recognize that learning from one another's perspectives makes us stronger lawmakers.

I will never forget how so many of you came to stand with me when I shared testimony for the pregnancy loss awareness resolution last fall - your kindness and willingness to share your deeply personal stories with me afterward were incredibly touching. For that and so many other moments in this chamber where we've built connections over life's struggles and joys, I thank you.

To wrap up — Sometimes people in my district ask me if I like this job. Some of them know it hasn't always been easy – being threatened with a recall and being called some terrible names over email and twitter, being told I shouldn't bring my daughter to a meeting, getting pushback from powerful interests for standing up for what I believe in, and some other recent things you may know about. My answer to this question is always that despite the many challenges, yes, I absolutely love this job. It is a huge honor and responsibility and I have done the best I could do.

I'm so grateful to have served alongside you and will always cherish my time in the House – thank you”.

Rep. Cochran:

- “After six years of serving in this chamber, I have never stopped believing that it represents hallowed ground. The people of this State chose us – entrusted us – with the power to change the world we live in.
- The votes we make in this chamber affect the lives of 10 million people. I consider it not only an honor but also the highest privilege to have been chosen to serve as a voice for my constituents.
- During my time as a State Representative, I have had the pleasure of meeting and speaking with thousands of my constituents at coffee hours, community events, town halls, and by knocking doors. I've listened to their concerns, their struggles, and their triumphs.
- And I'd like to say a heartfelt thank you to all the people who reached out to my office to share their views and ideas for change – your commitment to constant improvement inspired me and reminded me of my purpose in this chamber.
- Through the will of the people, we expanded Medicaid coverage to provide basic healthcare to hundreds of thousands of children and hard working families struggling to make ends meet. We listened to public outcry to 'Fix the Damn Roads' and worked together to take a big first step towards improving our infrastructure. We collaborated to resolve the financial crisis in our state by supporting Detroit and saving thousands of families from economic devastation.
- If anything, the past six years have taught me the power of collaboration – when 110 individuals with varying perspectives put their minds together, we truly can achieve great things. My proudest moment during these past six years was right after that vote to expand Medicaid, when both sides came together to pass something that was undoubtedly the best decision for our state. It is at these times that we remember the system does work properly when given the chance.
- In contrast, I have also seen the detrimental effect that partisanship and divisiveness can have on our ability to honor the wishes of the people of Michigan. Not long after that proud moment of coming together, this body voted to dissolve two school districts, and it was back to business as usual.
- I have witnessed the denial of good legislation due only to the individual sponsoring the bill. I have watched legislators deny others the opportunity to advocate for their people. I have seen the will of a few interest groups control the issues that this chamber will take on. I've seen our school boards, municipalities, and counties be increasingly handcuffed when making key decisions best left up to them as the state continues its erosion of local control. I've heard a continued pledge from some of my colleagues to never raise taxes a dime, yet – disingenuously – haven't met a user fee they didn't like. But worst of all, I have watched time-after-time this legislature attempt to circumvent ballot proposals, the only remaining process the people have to directly control the laws of their state.
- When we attempt to enact what we believe to be the best choice, we ignore the only option that has ever mattered – the people's choice. In parting words of wisdom from a fellow public servant, I implore you all to remember that you were chosen to SERVE the will of our people and not to impose it.

- Finally, I want to thank the people who support this democratic system every day.
- To the administrative and facilities staff of the House – without you this place would be a bigger mess than it already is.
- To Mary Ann Cleary and the entire staff at the House Fiscal Agency, thank you for making my time on appropriations enjoyable and as seamless as possible. You all never cease to amaze me with your institutional knowledge of the budget process and how much patience you display when sharing that knowledge with us.
- To the Sergeants-at-Arms and Chief Dickson – thank you for working long hours to protect us and for not getting upset when we accidentally click that traffic light on our screens.
- To the House clerks, Gary Randall, and their incredibly professional staff – without your efficiency and direction, we’d all be lost.
- To my staff, and all staff here in the House – thank you for your tireless work and unrelenting positive energy. We all know who does the actual work around here.
- And finally, thank you to my wife, my family, my friends, and my supporters. They say a man is made up of a collection of moments, shaped by experience, and grown by the care of others. I wouldn’t trade anything for the people I’ve met and the experiences I’ve had in these halls, and I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors.”

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Second Reading of Bills

Senate Bill No. 637, entitled

A bill to provide for the regulation by state or local government authorities and municipally owned electric utilities of the activities of wireless infrastructure providers and wireless services providers and of wireless facilities, wireless support structures, and utility poles; to regulate rates and fees concerning wireless facilities, wireless support structures, communications service provider pole attachments, and utility poles charged by state or local government authorities and municipally owned electric utilities; to provide for collocation of wireless facilities and of communications service provider pole attachments; to provide for use of public rights-of-way; to regulate certain permitting processes and zoning reviews; to prohibit certain commercially discriminatory actions by state or local government authorities and municipally owned electric utilities; to prohibit state and local government authorities from entering into exclusive arrangements with any person for the right to attach to certain utility poles; to authorize indemnification and insurance requirements; to authorize certain bonding requirements; and to provide for charges for electricity to operate small cell wireless facilities.
