Pastor Ryan Guenther, Pastor of Victory Baptist Church in Hartland, offered the following invocation:

“As the tradition has been wisely established, the Michigan House of Representatives gathers to begin this day asking for divine guidance and direction from almighty God.

I lift each legislator in prayer this morning including the speaker of the House. Every elected official, from the president to our local representatives; from the white house to Michigan’s house... I beseech the throne of heaven for the sake of our country and our state. May the sacrifices, tears, and prayers of our forefathers to preserve liberty not go to waste within these halls. May these legislators not forget price that was paid of those principles which has made our country great. May this congress allow the constitution and the word of God to be the foundational measure of humility in their thinking and decision making. May truth have more value than partisan, political bickering and that righteousness have more influence than political pressure. Righteousness exalteth a nation! (Proverbs 14:34).

During a time of political struggle on this very day in 1605, Lord, You saved King James from an assassination attempt from Guy Fawkes directly under the House of Commons and brought the King James Bible, the Authorized Version to the world. Therefore; as we are thankful for God’s preservation and inspiration of God’s divine words during a time of heightened political pressure, I ask that truth will survive this day! As we Remember, Remember the 5th of November.... I ask that truth will be preserved in this house and that righteousness would prevail in this place on November 5, of 2019. In Jesus name. Amen.”

The Speaker Pro Tempore called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Lilly to the Chair.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Reps. Neeley and Whitsett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Brenda Carter, Clemente, Crawford, Garza, Hood, Hope, Cynthia Johnson, Jones, Kahle, Kuppa, Lasinski, Love, Manoogian, Pagan, Sabo, Sneller, Stone, Warren, Wittenberg and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 193.

A resolution to declare November 2019 as Poverty and Homelessness Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Last year more than 65,000 residents throughout Michigan experienced homelessness; and
Whereas, 11,317 households with children were homeless in 2018. The number of families affected by homelessness or at-risk of having inadequate or unstable housing continues to be a significant community issue; and

Whereas, The number of seniors, aged 55 and above, experiencing homelessness is continuously increasing. In 2018, 8,367 seniors experienced homelessness; and

Whereas, The Michigan Coalition Against Homelessness, the Michigan State Housing Development Authority, supporters of Michigan's Campaign to End Homelessness, and the Michigan Legislative Caucus on Poverty and Homelessness are some of the many dedicated organizations in this state whose efforts continue to make a difference in the lives of many homeless citizens in our communities; and

Whereas, The Campaign to End Homelessness and its many supporters helped bring about a 9 percent decrease in the number of persons counted living on the streets from 2015-2017; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2019 as Poverty and Homelessness Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Hood, Pohutsky, Garza, Shannon, Witwer, Byrd, Cynthia Johnson, Cherry, Lasinski, Gay-Dagnogo, Sowerby, Brenda Carter, Coleman, Manoogian, Haadsma, LaGrand, Bolden, Stone, Kuppa, Rabhi, Brann, Anthony, Calley, Tyrone Carter, Miller, Ellison, Sneller, Afendoulis, Huizenga, Howell, VanWoerkom, Hoadley, Hammoud, Allor, Clemente, Hope, Jones, Love, Pagan, Sabo, Warren and Wittenberg offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 194.

A resolution to declare November 1, 2019, as Lead Poisoning Prevention Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Lead is a dangerous and harmful substance to humans. It gets in our water, soil, and households. Lead comes from many sources such as paint, pipes, and certain toys; and

Whereas, The effects of lead can affect people of all ages. However, children, especially those under six, are at a much higher risk for lead poisoning. Many items that children play with, such as toys and remains of lead paint dust, may cause lead to enter a child's body and can have dangerous consequences. Among these consequences are brain and nervous system damage, slow growth and development, and hearing and speech problems. Adults may experience decreased kidney function and elevated blood pressure; and

Whereas, The effects of lead can stay in a person's body for 30 years or more; and

Whereas, This state has seen firsthand the effects that lead poisoning can have on people; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, low income communities are at a greater risk for lead poisoning than those in other communities; and

Whereas, Lead poisoning is preventable. There are many steps individuals can take to avoid lead poisoning, which include having drinking water tested, removing shoes before entering the home to prevent spreading lead from dust or soil, and thoroughly washing children's toys, hands, and pacifiers; and

Whereas, Lead Poisoning Prevention Day is a call to individuals, organizations, industries, state, tribal, and local governments to increase lead poisoning prevention awareness through education, resources, and action; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 1, 2019, as Lead Poisoning Prevention Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Bollin, Allor, Clemente, Crawford, Green, Hood, Hope, Cynthia Johnson, Jones, Kahle, Kuppa, Lasinski, Love, Manoogian, Rendon, Sabo, Schroeder, Sneller, Stone, Warren, Wittenberg and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 195.

A resolution to declare November 2019 as Stomach Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Stomach cancer, also known as gastric cancer, is one of the most difficult cancers to detect in the early stages of the disease, which contributes to high mortality rates; and

Whereas, Stomach cancer occurs when cancer cells develop in the lining of the stomach; and

Whereas, Stomach cancer is the fifth most common type of cancer worldwide. In 2019, an estimated 27,510 cases of stomach cancer will be diagnosed in the United States and approximately 11,140 people in the country will die from the disease; and

Whereas, The estimated 5-year survival rate for stomach cancer is only 31 percent; and

Whereas, Approximately 1 in 111 individuals will be diagnosed with stomach cancer during his or her lifetime; and

Whereas, In the United States, stomach cancer is more prevalent among racial and ethnic minorities; and

Whereas, Increased awareness of and education about stomach cancer among patients and health care providers could improve timely recognition of stomach cancer symptoms; and

Whereas, More research into early diagnosis, screening, and treatment for stomach cancer is needed; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2019 as Stomach Cancer Awareness Month in the state of Michigan. We support the goals of Stomach Cancer Awareness Month, encourage efforts to increase awareness of and education about the condition among the general public of Michigan, and recognize the need for additional research into early diagnosis, screening, and treatment for stomach cancer.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Manoogian, Camilleri, Wittenberg, Guerra, Tyrone Carter, Hammoud, Pagan, Lasinski, Brixie, Clemente, Garza, Hood, Hope, Cynthia Johnson, Jones, Kuppa, Love and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 196.

A resolution to memorialize the U.S. Congress to adopt Election Day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, as a national holiday.

Whereas, Voting is the cornerstone of our democratic republic. Through voting, we elect leaders and lawmakers; make public policy decisions; and express opinions at the national, state, and local levels. Respecting and championing the vote is central to maintaining the highest ideals of the United States—liberty, justice, and equality; and

Whereas, As a momentous part of our nation and identity, voting deserves to be celebrated and encouraged through a national holiday. The country has many distinct days that honor great people and events, which are appropriately distinguished as national holidays. However, there is not a national holiday specifically centered on voting and its significance to our society and its founding principles; and

Whereas, A national holiday designation would ease obstacles to voting and increase election participation. Voter turnout is negatively impacted by work schedules, time constraints, and related barriers. By making the November election a holiday, these problems and associated issues like excessively long morning and evening lines at polling places would be mitigated. With more time to cast their ballots, voters would be better able to exercise their democratic rights. Moreover, with more citizens voting, our elections would be more representative of the country and its communities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the U.S. Congress to adopt Election Day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, as a national holiday; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.
